

Class of 1956 Holds Reunion Here

It was another first for the Hope High School Class of 1956 when they had a 10 year reunion Friday, December 23 at the Hope Country Club. This class was the first enrolled in the new Brookwood and Garland Grade Schools, the first in Hope Junior High, and now the first class to have a reunion at the newly completed clubhouse at the Hope Country Club.

When MC Steve Marlar called the class roll, 64 out of an original 126 answered. With husbands, wives, and teachers the reunion was attended by 119. Class sponsors were Mrs. P. L. Perkins, Mrs. Joe Amour, and Coach Wayne Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and Coach Taylor, now of Camden, were present, and Mrs. Joella Amour Stokes wrote her best wishes to the class from her present home in Dallas.

Other members of the HHS faculty attending were: James H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Ridling, Mrs. B. B. McPherson, and Coach and Mrs. John Pierce, now of Crossett. Letters from those in the class unable to attend were read by Wayne Johnson and W. C. Bruner, Jr., and a few moments of silence was observed in remembrance of deceased members. Jane Cooley, Richard Erwin, Franklin Foster, Charles Ray Prescott, and Principal Joe Amour.

Besides the flocked Christmas tree and other Yuletide ornaments at the clubhouse, decorations for the event also included an arrangement of red and white carnations to depict the school colors. It was fun to hear what had been written by Judy Watkins 10 years before as the Class Prophecy, and many were surprised to learn that 28 of the class make their homes in Hope, today.

Prizes were given in various categories with Velora Bright making the awards. A four-way tie for the most children was among Patsy Bright Weaver of Shreveport, Charles Roberts Devenney, Alice A. Anthony Watkins and Wanda Stanley Olney, all of Hope. William Perkins of Neward, O., had come the greatest distance to attend, and Bertha Richardson Upchurch of Hope had been married the longest, 10 years.

Dancing was enjoyed and a tasty buffet supper was served. The most fun, however, was in renewing acquaintances and exchanging memories of the past and hopes for the future.

Millions Up for Wage Increases

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some 7 million workers will be up for wage hikes in 1967 in new labor talks or previously negotiated contracts, and James R. Hoffa's Teamsters Union leads off the parade.

The Labor Department reports the round of major labor negotiations will be the biggest in recent years, covering airline pilots, auto workers, food processors, railroad employees and workers in textile, rubber, paper, telephone and many other industries.

The government's figures cover only contracts involving 1,000 or more workers and smaller cases will bring the total number of workers involved considerably higher.

Of the 7 million workers listed, more than 3 million will be involved in new contract talks and nearly 4 million will get wage increases negotiated earlier in long-term contracts.

Hoffa, starting negotiations next month for some 450,000 Teamsters under his union's national trucking contract, opens the first of the major new contract negotiations.

Reportedly planning to demand a 7 per cent hike in wages and fringe benefits, but possibly settling for 5 per cent, the Teamsters will set the tone for the size of expected 1967 labor demands.

Although wage settlements averaged 3.7 per cent in 1966, the pattern moved toward 5 per cent in the latter part of the year in major agreements covering airlines mechanics and electrical industry workers.

The airlines suffered a six-week strike before that settlement, and the critical nature of many of next year's affected industries is expected to renew demands for antistrike legislation sounded by some during the airlines walkout.

The Labor Department report noted that, with the past year's big hike in consumer prices, cost-of-living escalator demands have again become a prime labor goal.

Portuguese Applaud Salazar

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar received resounding applause Thursday night at the final official ceremony celebrating the 40th anniversary of his regime.

At the year's last session of the Portuguese National Assembly, the 77-year-old leader called for a halt in the applause after he was described in a speech as "the greatest Portuguese of today and perhaps one of the greatest ever."

Says Ruling on Guideline to Be Changed

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The governor of Louisiana says he disagrees with a federal court order to desegregate Southern public schools next fall and thinks the U.S. Supreme Court will reverse the decision.

"I disagree completely with the majority," Gov. John J. McKeithen said Thursday, after the decision by the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals. "I presume the case will be appealed to the United States Supreme Court, and I think there are ample grounds for the Supreme Court to reverse this 2-1 decision."

The court held that the guidelines set up by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare should be followed by federal courts in school desegregation orders and that all grades, including kindergarten, should be desegregated by the fall of 1967.

To which Florida School Supt. Floyd T. Christian remarked: "It would be as impossible as flying to the moon to complete desegregation by next fall. It will take time because of problems such as the location of schools, inadequate facilities and a shortage of teachers."

The 2-1 court decision stemmed from seven school desegregation cases heard last May. The cases involved three school boards in Alabama and four in Louisiana.

Under the HEW guidelines, segregated school systems do not get federal aid. Those systems under court order to desegregate or which have agreed to comply with the Civil Rights Act of 1954 continue to get aid.

The guidelines have been under attack by many Southern congressmen and other political leaders who contend HEW is pushing desegregation faster and farther than the courts ordered.

China Purge Hits Foreign Minister

By ROBERT LIU
TOKYO (AP) — One day after his ouster was demanded by the Red Guards, Red Chinese Foreign Minister Chen Yi delivered a fiery speech Thursday praising the "cultural revolution" purge.

"The situation in the great proletarian cultural revolution in China is excellent," Chen told a Peking rally of 100,000 persons, including Red Guards, the official New China News Agency reported.

Chen repeatedly praised Communist Chairman Mao Tse-tung, who with Defense Minister Lin Biao turned loose the young Red Guards last August to drive anti-Mao thinkers from public life.

Neither Mao nor Lin attended the rally. Premier Chou En-lai did but did not speak.

Red Guards attacked Chen, 65, Wednesday in posters criticizing him for unspecified "personal remarks" and demanding: "Kick old Chen out."

The wife of the foreign minister, Chang Chien, a work committee deputy chief at a printing plant, was accused of restricting plant workers' campaigns and his son, Chen Shao-lu, was accused of mistakes while serving as a member of a crop inspection team.

In his speech Chen said the main target of the purge "is the handful of people within the party who are in authority and are taking the capitalist road. They are as time bombs placed within our party."

He said the purge "has broken through the obstructions raised by the bourgeois reactionary line (anti-Maoists) and is developing in depth and breadth."

He also denounced the Soviet Union and Indonesia's new government for "dirty political deals." The failure of the attempted Communist coup in Indonesia in October 1965 was followed by a swing away from the pro-Chinese policy which Indonesia had followed and constituted Red China's gravest setback in the foreign policy field in many months.

MRS. JERRY THOMAS SCOTT

Secretary of State and Mrs. Kelly Bryant of Hope and Little Rock announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Ann, to Jerry Thomas Scott of Little Rock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Scott of Mount Ida.

The couple exchanged vows at high noon Wednesday, December 28, in the Chapel of the First Methodist Church. Following a program of nuptial music presented by John H. Summers, the Rev. R. E. L. Bearden, assisted by the Rev. Rufus F. Sorrells, performed the double ring ceremony.

Mr. Bryant gave his daughter in marriage. Her silhouette gown of studded tulle was fashioned with an A-line skirt. A capelet of embroidered imported Alencon lace completed the fitted bodice and a detachable chapel train was held at the waistline by a band of Alencon lace, bordered around the sides and bottom with the rose medallion motif outlined in tiny seed pearls. Her veil of silk illusion was held in place by a small bow of matching tulle material. Her flowers were a cascade of white garden-

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The distance between Pasadena and Hollywood has long seemed more than the geographic 20 miles. But that will be rectified on Monday.

Pasadena has been characterized, especially by Bob Hope and other comedians, as a long-nosed dowager. Hollywood, of course, bears the image of a peroxide starlet. The dowager and the starlet have seldom joined forces for Pasadena's annual Tournament of Roses.

But both are more mature now, and Hollywood will be well represented in the two-hour parade which will be televised across the nation on all three networks Monday morning.

In previous years, Hollywood participation was largely limited to selection of stars as grand marshal. Mary Pickford, Harold Lloyd, Leo Carrillo, Shirley Temple, Edgar Bergen, Kay Kyser and Bob Hope served from 1933 to 1947. Last year the grand marshal was Walt Disney, who led the parade alongside his old friend, Mickey Mouse.

This year Pat Crowley, Mark Miller and their sons of the "Please Don't Eat the Daisies" television series will ride the Florists' Transworld Delivery Association float, along with their shaggy dog. Bill Cosby of "I Spy" will appear on a float sponsored by the Centennial Rose Parade Committee.

For its "Shangri-La" theme, the American Trucking Association is assembling some of the surviving members of the "Lost Horizon" caste — Jane Wyatt and Margo and Sam Jaffe. Chinese actress Lisa Lu will grace the Hong Kong float.

The "F Troop" gang — Forrest Tucker, Larry Storch, Ken Berry, and others, will be among the horseriders in the parade, along with a sprinkling of other television cowboys and Indians.

As usual, the networks have hired male-and-female teams to tell viewers how many thousands of what kind of flowers make up the floats. The teams: Elizabeth Montgomery and Los Angeles Dodgers' announcer Vin Scully for ABC; Bess Myerson and Mike Douglas for CBS; Bill Cullen and Betty White for NBC.

The couple left for a wedding trip following a reception in the Forum Room of Hotel Marlon. On their return, they will be at home at the Chateau DeVille Apartments, 6200 Asher Avenue, in Little Rock.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Arkansas. Her sorority is Pi Beta Phi. She served as a Lady of the Realm in the annual Memphis Cotton Carnival last spring. She is associated with the Arkansas School for the Blind as a member of the teaching staff.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Arkansas and a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. He is engaged in the field of advertising and public relations.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

A COZY SETUP—FOR HIM

Dear Helen: Speaking of a divorce being too friendly—even though my husband has been married more than a year to this second woman, he seems to be more of the husband I wanted than ever before. He visits the kids frequently and even visits when they're in school. All the things I wanted of him THEN, he tries to be now. Not only are we good friends, we have also been intimate several times since his remarriage.

He says he will always love me and I feel I'll always love him. We live in walking distance of each other and can't seem to forget how much we still care. That is, I can't forget. I can't get interested in another man because I love my former husband so much. The other woman lured him away, but maybe she can't keep him.

Is it possible he regrets his second marriage?—UNCERTAIN

Dear Un: I'd guess more likely this two-time-and-timing-husband is enjoying the advantages of both marriages? Regrets? Why? He has the wife he wants, plus an ex-wife who does what he wants and no longer fights with him. A very cozy setup for him—until his fast footwork between houses trips him up. Then Wife No. 2 may send him back for keeps—and do you really want a man two women can't trust?

My advice, which you won't take: Insist that he visit only when the children are home, and only in the front room.—H.

PERSONAL TO "THINKER": A big fault of youth is its lack of patience and willingness to compromise. . . . BUT one of the biggest faults of adults is that we bow down to patience and compromise—in the wrong places, which is a handy label for "cowardice." Too bad the generations can't borrow from one another and arrive on common ground—"maturity."—H.

SHE LIKES HER BED, LET HER LIE IN IT

Dear Helen: This girl of 21 married a boy and four months later he was sent to Vietnam. Four months after that she comes home and tells us she is three months pregnant by a boy she really loves. She wrote and asked her husband for a divorce. He agreed, though he told her he loved her and would take the baby as his own. However, when the papers were served, they made him out such a louse that he wouldn't sign them.

The "wife" is continuing to live with her new love on her husband's allotment. He is a college student and doesn't have a dime. They tell people they are married.

Her husband was due home in January, but we hear he has been shot and will be in an Army hospital overseas until March. She is absolutely furious, as though he had planned getting wounded, because he now won't be home before the baby arrives and she wanted to get the divorce settled before then.

Her father, who raised her in a motherless home, is beside himself. He travels to see her every week and comes back a man defeated. She won't come home. Says she isn't ashamed and that others are the hypocrites. She was always strong willed and demanding. Her Dad overlooked these traits, thinking she would outgrow them. He never expected her to help around the house or be considerate of others. She is a near-genius—he figured grades were enough. He really slaved, putting her through college.

What can he do to right this

Dear IBY: The only thing a father can do when spoiled, headstrong, self-willed 21-year-old "married" daughter said "I'll live my own life" is — Let her! . . . and concentrate on living HIS. The girl wants no help in managing her affairs, and if the father can't accept this, he'd better stop visiting.

Comes a time when a parent must say, "You're wrong, but you're grown, so learn it for yourself. Some never do.—H.

They were summoned, not to the usual stiff studio set, but to dinner at the home of commentator Howard K. Smith outside of Washington. Clad in dinner jackets, sipping brandy and smoking cigars, the newsmen discussed and disagreed in gentlemanly style on a variety of subjects.

The talk was spiced by articulate and informed varieties of opinion while covering the predictable ground. They took up with enthusiasm the Vietnam conflict, Sino-Soviet relations, the credibility gap, probable presidential candidates in 1968, the enigma of De Gaulle, the future of Britain, the new nationalism of Germany and a number of other subjects besides.

NBC's yearend wrap-up—using the communications satellites to bring its correspondents together—will be along tonight—9:30-10 EST—and CBS' is set for Sunday afternoon—2:30-3:30.

Earlier in the evening, NBC's Bob Hope Theatre launched what may be the new trend in spy stories. It was the first of a two-part drama by Alvin Sapsley called "Code Name: Hero-cultus."

Sapsley, apparently, is as bored with superspies having superadventures as some television viewers. So he has created a surly, dour fellow without memory of his past, without conscience and with a passion for gum chewing. He does his spying with the help of nothing more interesting than an old-fashioned pistol.

Hugh Downs, since the departure of Jack Paar from the "Tonight Show" has had plenty of daylight exposure as host of the "Today Show" and "Concentration" but he has been a rare sight after dark.

This will be changed on Jan. 8 when NBC will pull together an assortment of taped interviews and guided tours made during a recent week's visit to England by the "Today Show" crew. It will be used to fill that 6:30-7:30 p.m. EST hour on Sunday night which is turned over to the news department when it is not filled by the Telephone Hour.

TV Lineup for Weekend Grid Fans

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
First television invented the National Drivers Test and then it followed up with the National Health Test, National Citizenship Test and a bunch of others.
This weekend the network moguls have come up with what is surely the most awe-inspiring test of all — the National Television Football Watching Test.
From noon Saturday until almost midnight Monday, (Eastern Standard Time) the American football fan will be able to discover his true feelings toward the little box in the living room. He will be able to watch, almost entirely without channel switching, eight — count 'em eight — football games.
Saturday, there is the Gator Bowl (Tennessee-Syracuse) on ABC at noon, the Cotton Bowl (Georgia-Southern Methodist) on CBS at 2:30 p.m. and the Shrine Game (East-West) on NBC at 4:30 p.m.
Sunday, the pros take over with the AFL Championship game (Buffalo-Kansas City) at 1 p.m. on NBC and the NFL title game (Green Bay-Dallas) on CBS at 4:30 p.m.
Monday, it's back to the colleges. First the Sugar Bowl (Alabama-Nebraska) on NBC at 2 p.m. Then the Rose Bowl (Purdue-Southern California) on NBC at 5 p.m. and finally the Orange Bowl (Georgia Tech-Florida) at 8 p.m. on NBC.
At the Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla., it was the passing of Tennessee's Dewey Warren against the running of Syracuse's Floyd Little and Larry Csonka.
During the regular season, Tennessee was 7-3 and Syracuse 8-2.
Georgia, 9-1, was a slight favorite over SMU, 8-2, in the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, but Coach Hayden Fry said he thought Southern Methodist has yet to play its best game and "perhaps it will come in the Cotton Bowl."
At the 42nd Shrine game in San Francisco, Don Horn of San Diego State was to alternate with Stanford's Dave Lewis in quarterbacking the West while Benny Russell of Louisville and Danny Talbot of North Carolina were set lead the West.
Nebraska, 9-1, got some bad news when Alabama's star end Ray Perkins appeared recovered from his groin injury in Sugar Bowl practice Thursday.
Coach Bear Bryant of the Crimson, 10-0 during the regular season, said Perkins would play in the New Orleans game whether he was in top condition or not.
Southern Cal, 7-3, will have to go with Troy Winslow all the way at quarterback in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena since backup man Tobey Page, who saw a lot of action during the season, is out with a leg injury. Quarterback Bob Griese is the key to victory hopes for Purdue, 8-2.
And in the Orange Bowl, injuries to key Georgia Tech defenders put a crimp in the engineers' hopes of stopping Florida's Steve Spurrier in the Miami game. Linebacker Billy Schroer and defense end Tommy Carlisle have foregone contact work in practice.
Florida Coach Ray Graves, however, says his team is "just where I want it to be. We'll not need two-a-day workouts any more."
Tom Burnett Signs With N.Y. Jets
NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Jets of the American Football League announced Thursday that they had signed Arkansas end Tommy Burnett for an undisclosed bonus.
Burnett was the Jets' fourth round draft choice as a future. He also had been selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the National Football League's supplementary draft.
"We're very pleased to get him," said coach-general manager Weeb Ewbank. "He has excellent speed and good size for a flanker. We regard him as about the same calibre as his brother Bobby."
Burnett's brother was the AFL's Rookie of the Year while playing with Buffalo this season.

Georgia, SMU Teams Much Alike

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The 31st Cotton Bowl meeting Saturday between Georgia and Southern Methodist — two teams with many similarities — could be as dull as a chess match or as exciting as a space shot.
"Both depend on quickness and speed, have big play men in Jerry Levas and Kent Lawrence, have spring-out quarterbacks and have had to come from behind in many games," said Coach Hayden Fry of Southern Methodist.
"It will be a head-knocking kind of game," added Georgia Coach Vince Dooley at a news conference Thursday. "I think it will be a very evenly matched football game."
Levas is the sophomore Negro and who was the difference in six of Southern Methodist's eight victories this season as the Mustangs won their first Southwest Conference title since 1948.
Lawrence, the sophomore tailback, is an exciting breakaway runner. He has returned 27 punts and kickoffs 534 yards, including 87 and 70 yards for touchdowns.
Fourth-ranked Georgia is a seven-point favorite over 10th-ranked SMU before the sell-out crowd of 75,504.
The Saturday forecast was for cold weather with temperatures in the 40s and the possibility of rain.
Bumper and Dodgers Show on Sunday
WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP) — The Bumper and the Dodger will be out to steal the show when Kansas City's Otis Taylor and Chris Burford bring the No. 1 pass-catching act in the American Football League into Buffalo for Sunday's championship game.
That's the way Butch (the Bumper) Byrd and Tom (the Dodger) Janik sized up the play within the playing that might very well determine the outcome of the test of strength that will send either the Chiefs or the defending champion Bills into the Super Bowl game.
Byrd likely will draw the assignment of covering Taylor, the fleet flanker who grabbed 58 passes for 1,297 yards during the regular season, while Janik probably will be matched against Burford, the experienced split end who also grabbed 58 passes and gained 758 yards.
"Taylor has size, speed, good hands and good moves," said Byrd.
"So what I'll be trying to do is pick him up as he comes off the line. We'll probably collide and bump a couple of times but I've got to play him real aggressively — and that might offset some of his ability."
Byrd, at an even 6-feet, weighs about 215 pounds compared to Taylor, who goes 6-feet-2 and is also 215. But while they figure to be bumping, Janik, 6-feet-3 and only 185 pounds, figures to be using different tactics against the 6-foot-3 210-pound Burford.
"I'm always giving away weight so this won't be any different," said Janik. "Burford really fights for the ball — he'll kill you fighting for the ball."
"I'll have to be a Dodger and dodge him if I can. I'll have to use more finesse."
Baylor and West Are on Move Again
Elgin Baylor and Jerry West are on the move, and that could mean an unhappy new year for the Western Division teams in the National Basketball Association that are counting on a continuation of the surprisingly poor showing thus far by the Los Angeles Lakers.
In Cincinnati Thursday night, Baylor poured in 40 points and West came up with 35 for the biggest combined total the Lakers' 1-2 punch has had this season. Los Angeles won 125-114.
Los Angeles is still in fifth place in the West, 10 games behind the division-leading San Francisco Warriors, but the Lakers are closing in on the rest of the division for that fourth playoff spot. They are just three games behind second-place St. Louis, two in back of Detroit and half a game behind Chicago.
In the only other game in the NBA, Boston edged the Hawks 112-110 at St. Louis behind John Havlicek's 14 last-quarter points.

Porkers in Victory in Overtime

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Arkansas scored seven points in overtime to climax a comeback and take a 65-61 victory over Arizona in the consolation round of the Los Angeles Basketball Classic.
The Razorbacks will play for fifth place in the tournament today, meeting Michigan, which whipped Wisconsin 98-88 in another consolation game.
Arkansas and Arizona were tied 30-30 at halftime and played it close throughout the second half. David Self hit a basket to begin the overtime and the Razorbacks stalled the rest of the way. Self hit two free throws with 32 seconds left to settle the issue.
Tommy Rowland led Arkansas with 19 points and Self had 10.
Arizona, which held the lead until the halftime buzzer, was led by Mike Welton with 12 points, Gerald Jacobs with 11 and Jim Hansen with 10.
Bruins, With Giant, Keep Setting Marks
By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Low Alcindor is keeping his guard up . . . and Southern California's embattled Trojans can only hope the UCLA basketball prodigy stays on the defensive.
The Trojans take their second shot at 7-foot-1 Alcindor and the top-ranked Bruins tonight in the title game of the Los Angeles Classic . . . and their memory of the first encounter is still much too clear for comfort.
Four weeks ago Alcindor made his varsity debut against Southern Cal and shattered the UCLA scoring record with a 56-point spree as the Bruins won 105-90, beginning their run of seven straight victories.
Since then, however, the sensational sophomore has been shooting less and concentrating on defense. He settled for 18 points Thursday night in a 91-72 semifinal victory over Georgia Tech after USC, down by 15 points in the second half, rallied for a 73-72 victory over Illinois.
"I feel my defense is improving, but I'm still not satisfied," said Alcindor, who ruled the backboards and blocked shots while Mike Warren and Lucius Allen helped the UCLA offense go with 17 and 14 points, respectively.
Peck Hickman, coach of No. 2-ranked Louisville, was far from satisfied after the Cardinals held off Syracuse 75-71 for their 10th straight victory and a championship berth opposite unbeaten Princeton in the Quaker City Classic at Philadelphia.
"Some of our boys stood around as if they were counting the crowd," Hickman said.
Princeton banged in six straight points for a 53-47 lead with three minutes to play, then held off Villanova 55-52 for its seventh victory without a loss. John Haarlow's 16 points led the Tigers.
Southern Illinois, one of the nation's small college giants, ambushed fourth-ranked Texas Western 59-54 in the first round of the Sun Carnival at El Paso, Tex., a tourney the host Miners had won five years in a row.
A tough zone defense, coupled with Ralph Johnson's 22 points, take the Salukis into tonight's final against Southern Methodist, which edged Drake 84-81 in the nightcap.
Fifth-ranked New Mexico, the host club in the Lobo Invitational at Albuquerque, stormed past Texas A&M 85-54 as Mel Daniels dropped in 17 of his 22 points in the first half. Colorado State University nipped New York University 55-53 in the opener and will take on New Mexico tonight for the title.
Elvin Hayes scored 23 points and grabbed 18 rebounds as sixth-ranked Houston captured the Arkansas State Invitational crown with a 68-58 triumph over the host team at Jonesboro, Ark.

Henderson, NLS Meet in Tourney

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (AP) — Northeast Louisiana State and Henderson will meet tonight in the finals of the AIC invitational basketball tournament.
Northeast gained the finals by clipping Ouachita 69-62 and Henderson whipped Southern State 78-69 Thursday.
In other Thursday games, Sam Houston State downed College of the Ozarks 83, and Arkansas State Teachers defeated Arkansas College 84-63.
Ouachita and Southern State will play for third place tonight and Sam Houston and State Teachers will meet for fifth place.
Henderson and Southern State were tied 33-33 at halftime, but the Reddies went ahead and stayed ahead in the second half. Larry Duckworth led the Reddies with 28 points. Bill Price hit 21 for Southern State.
Glenn Saulters hit 29 points as Northeast connected on 29 of 31 free throws in its victory over Ouachita. Don Purdy led the Tigers with 14 points.
Ozarks led Sam Houston most of the first half, but trailed 39-32 at intermission. Sam Houston's 6-foot-6 center, Calvin Oliver, hit 23 points. Teammate Jimmy Haller scored 21. Bob Chance and Gary Coots had 18 points apiece for Ozarks.
State Teachers built a 51-27 halftime lead and coasted the rest of the way against Arkansas College behind the shooting of Mickey Johnson, who had 18 points, and Tom McKinney, who had 16. Bill Cossey scored 19 and Jim Haney 16 for Arkansas College.

Arkansans in Shrine Game Sat.

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A half-ton of braking power aims to bring All-America backs to a quick halt Saturday in the 42nd annual Shrine East-West football game.
The East backfield boasts two who won A-A honors for 1966 — Nick Eddy of Notre Dame and Clint Jones of Michigan State.
Mel Farr of UCLA was the third running back in the All-America backfield this year, and he is on the West squad.
Meeting them head on will be hefty linemen. The five for the East average 243 pounds and total 1,213, actually more than a half ton. The West ends, tackles and middle guard average 233, and aggregate 1,164.
With those behemoths ready to charge, it could be that both coaches John Ralston of the West and Duffy Daugherty of the East will use strategy aimed at going over them via the air.
Defensively, the forward group for the East opens with 238-pound Alan Page of Notre Dame and Don Parker, 240, of Virginia at ends; Tom Fussell, 230, Louisiana State, and Bob Rowe, 245, Western Michigan, at tackles, and Dave Rowe, 260, Penn State, at middle guard.
If the West runners penetrate this group, they come up against linebackers Jim Lynch of Notre Dame, a 230-pounder, and Stan Juk of South Carolina at 210. Lynch and Jones were elected co-captains for the game starting at 4:45 EST, with national television (NBCu).
Western front liners are Tom Greenlee, 195, Washington, and Loyd Phillips, 230 of Arkansas at ends; Leo Carroll, 255, San Diego State, and Dennis Randall, 230, Oklahoma, at tackles, and John Richardson, 254, UCLA middle guard. Linebackers are George Harvey, 240, of Kansas, and Ron McCall, 235, of Utah's Weber College.
Ralston has three passers . . . San Diego State's Don Horn, Dave Lewis of Stanford and Tim VanGelder of Iowa State. The latter, however, has been hampered by injuries.
North Carolina's Danny Talkbott and Benny Russell of Louisville do the throwing for the East, which hasn't won this game since 1962 when Notre Dame's Daryl Lamonica engineered the triumph.

Hamilton Silent

on Marriage
 ACAPULCO, Mexico (AP) —
 Actor George Hamilton says
 whether he and Lynda Bird Johnson will marry "is a very personal question and we will keep it personal."
 "We have never commented in upon this and will continue to keep this policy," Hamilton told newsmen in Acapulco, where he and President Johnson's 22-year-old daughter are vacationing.
 The actor and Miss Johnson held a news conference Tuesday at the home of former actress
 Merle Oberon, their hostess.

MISSING WORK DAYS

PRAGUE (AP) — More than 50,000 cooperative farmers in Czechoslovakia suffered injuries at their jobs last year, missing as many working days as if 4,500 farmers had not worked all year, the Central Commission of Inspection and Statistics reported.

What are the prospects for peace in 1967?

The year 1966 ends on the same note of uncertainty which has afflicted U.S. foreign policy since the escalation of the war in Vietnam. Yet foreign affairs prognosticators and crystal ball gazers foresee 1967 as a more peaceful year.

They predict a truce, if not peace, in Vietnam in the next 12 months. They also see further relaxation in East-West tension in Europe and a continued decline in Communist influence in Latin America.

In the view of specialists on communism, the mounting conflict between Russia and Red China will do much to deter Moscow and Peking from embarking on any new military adventures in the non-Communist world that are likely to threaten peace.

Here is how things shape up in Vietnam, Europe and Latin America:

Vietnam

There is increasing evidence that North Vietnam is beginning to suffer from war exhaustion. Ho Chi Minh is facing an increasingly disgruntled and restless population.

Red China, herself in a state of political and economic disarray, is engaged in a bitter conflict with Russia which is likely to become more intense in 1967. Mao Tse-tung would like to continue the conflict in Vietnam to the last Vietnamese. But he is not in a position to give substantial and effective military and economic aid to Hanoi.

As a result, Ho Chi Minh, despite strong internal opposition of pro-Chinese elements, is beginning to move closer to Russia. His two Asian partners, the Communists of North Korea and Japan, have already abandoned Peking in favor of Moscow.

Diplomats from Communist East Europe make no secret of their belief that North Vietnam and the Viet Cong cannot win the war against the United States and its allies. They hint broadly that it is now in Russia's interest to check Red China's expansion in Southeast Asia.

Moscow would like a negotiated settlement in Vietnam that would not embarrass Russia in maintaining her image as the leader of anticommunism and national liberation movements," one influential East European diplomat said.

More important is the fact that the Communist parties of Italy and France—the two largest Red organizations in the West that usually act as Moscow's spokesmen—are now openly urging peace negotiations in Vietnam.

NEW POSTAGE STAMP
bears the portrait of Albert Gallatin, regarded as one of America's greatest secretaries of the treasury, who served in that office from 1801 to 1814, longest tenure in history. Designer of the 1 1/4-cent stamp was a man of common ancestry, Robert Gallatin of Columbus, Ohio. The vertical stamp will be printed in light green.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the food, the beautiful flowers, and every service and kindness rendered by our many friends during the loss of our loved one. Especially do we want to thank Dr. Branch and all the nurses at Branch Hospital. May God bless each of you.

Bland Diet Helpful as Duodenal Ulcer Treatment
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—What is the cause of a duodenal ulcer? What is the best treatment in a person who is 84?

A—Although the exact cause of duodenal ulcers is not known heredity appears to play a part in some cases. Even more important are such factors as emotional upsets and nervous tension, especially in persons who use coffee and tobacco to excess. Prolonged taking of aspirin, cinchophen, phenylbutazone and drugs of the cortisone group greatly increase the risk of developing a duodenal ulcer.

The treatment consists of a bland diet, antacids of the aluminum hydroxide type that coat the mucous membranes of the digestive tract and general sedatives. Rapid freezing of the stomach, hailed at first as the treatment of choice, fell out of favor as a result of poor results and an increase in complications but, with improved technique, this treatment is making a comeback. When medical treatment fails an operation is necessary. With modern advances in surgery, advanced age is no longer a reason not to consider operation.

Q—Are peptic ulcer and duodenal ulcer the same? Why do some persons get a bleeding ulcer? Would staying on an ulcer diet all the time prevent a recurrence? Do ulcers become cancerous?

A—Peptic ulcer is a general term that includes ulcer of the stomach and of the duodenum which is just beyond the outlet of the stomach. In peptic ulcers the digestive juices gradually digest weakened tissues. The deeper the ulcer the greater the danger that it will erode a blood vessel. This complication is most likely to occur in persons who are unaware that they have an ulcer or in persons with a chronic ulcer that is inadequately treated.

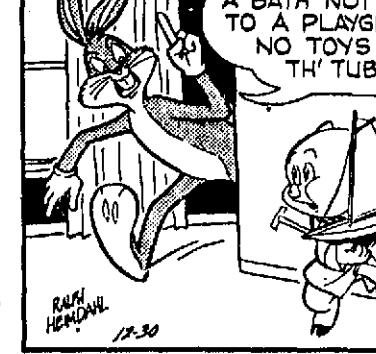

Staying on an ulcer diet would be a tedious way to prevent a recurrence. Most victims, by leading a more relaxed life, can liberalize their diet, still avoiding highly irritating foods and prevent having a recurrence. Duodenal ulcers do not become cancerous but ulcers of the stomach, unless promptly and adequately treated, often do.

Q—Can a stomach ulcer be cured? If so, how long will it take with proper treatment?

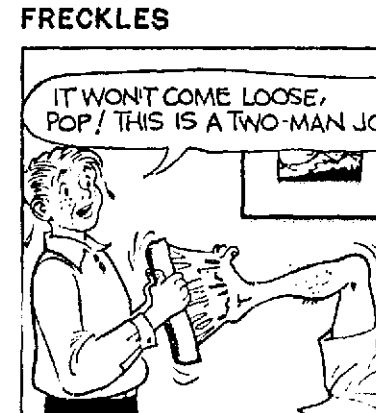

A—Most peptic ulcers will heal in about three weeks with proper treatment. The problem is to find the causative factors and control them, otherwise recurrence is inevitable.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

WORLD ALMANAC
FACTS

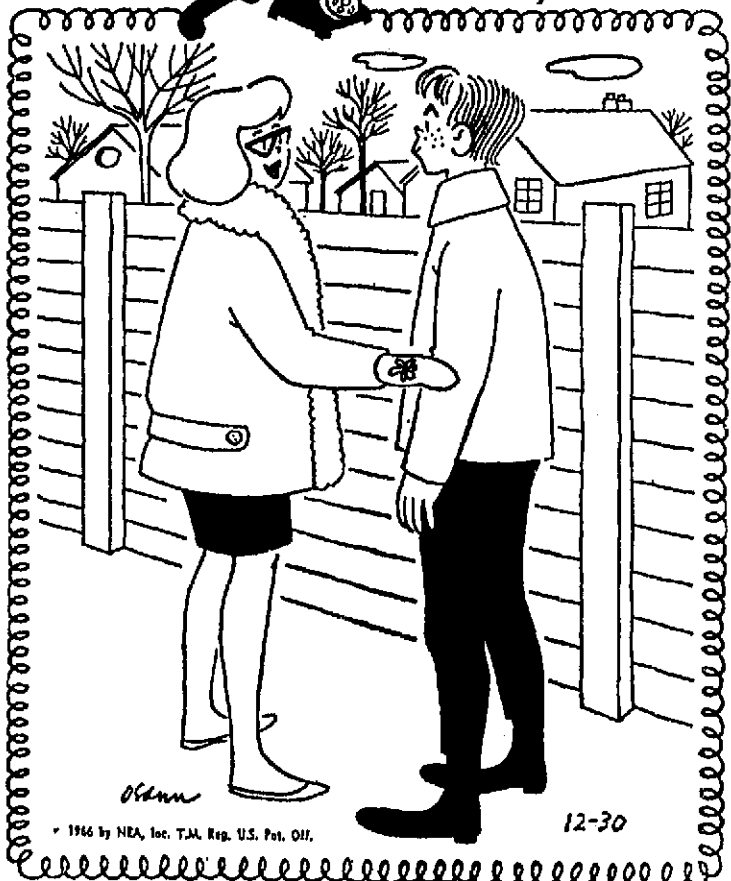

The oldest houses in the Western Hemisphere were recently discovered at Hell Gap near Guernsey, Wyo., says The World Almanac. The houses built by ancient Indian tribes and estimated to be 10,000 years old, are circular with regularly spaced holes around the circumference. A pole was placed in each of these holes, forming a framework which was tied together and then covered with hides.

If you think bad plays are never made by experts you are greatly mistaken. Every bridge player goes sometime or other. But experts don't goof quite as often as others. South's two no-trump bid was based on his 11-point pass plus the collection of tens, nines and eights. North's raise to three turned out to be a misplaced vote of confidence. Dummy's queen of diamonds held the first trick. The four of clubs was led next. East ducked and South won with his jack. The jack of hearts was led and overtaken by dummy's king and another club led. East rose with the king and led a diamond to his partner. Declarer played the jack and West was in with the king. West saw no reason to continue diamonds. Instead he led the deuce of spades. South played low from dummy. East won the trick with his queen, cashed the ace of clubs and led a spade to West for the fifth defensive trick. South mumbled something about a tough guess but he really had a brainstorm. Do you see why South's low spade play was so bad? East had dealt and passed. East had already shown up with five clubs to the ace-king and ten. If he also held the ace of spades he would surely have opened the bidding with one club. Hence, West was marked with the ace of spades and South should have risen with the king and run off the rest of the hearts and diamonds. Four hearts plus three diamonds plus the king of spades and jack of clubs represented the nine tricks South needed.

Koufax Has Signed as Commentator

NEW YORK (AP) — Sandy Koufax has found a job that will be less of a strain on his poor left arm than his former position was, but now he'll have to worry about laryngitis.

The retired Los Angeles Dodger pitching star Thursday signed a 10-year contract with the National Broadcasting Co., calling for him to do broadcasting and other work for the network.

Koufax quit his $125,000 job with the Dodgers in November after winning 27 games, the winningest season in his 11-year career, because of arthritis in his left elbow.

Salary terms of his new job were not revealed, but it is thought the job will pay him something less than the Dodgers did last year. One report had him receiving $100,000 a year.

In Los Angeles, Koufax said, "It sounds great. I'm all excited at the chance to stay close to baseball. It's a fresh start, and I just hope it continues."

NBC said Koufax, 31 years old today, will be involved in both radio and television work and besides doing color commentary on sports events, he will be involved in initiating program ideas, developing talent for the network and working on special projects.

Koufax, the National League's Most Valuable Player once and three times the Cy Young Award winner, set a record with 382 strikeouts in 1965. He pitched four no-hit games and led the Dodgers to three pennants and two World Series victories.

Set Record But Was Disappointed

SASKATOON, Sas. (AP) — Bob Seagren of Los Angeles expressed both joy and disappointment moments after he had established an indoor pole vault record.

He cleared 17 feet, 1 inch on Thursday night at the Knights of Columbus Jubilee Games, then immediately looked ahead to 18 feet.

"I did an unofficial 17-4 last week in Mobile, Ala.," he said. "I'm a little disappointed. I felt I could hit 17-7 here."

Seagren erased his own mark by three-quarters of an inch on his first try at that height. He then missed on three attempts to clear 17-7 and surpass the pending world mark of 17-6 1/4 held by John Pennell of Miami.

Seagren, 21, now has cleared 17 feet or better on more than 10 official occasions.

Within minutes of his record performance, he predicted that 18 feet is within his capabilities this season.

"I think it should be easier to vault indoors," said the six-foot freshman at the University of Southern California. "The boards are fast and conditions are constant."

British Also Having Slum Troubles

By GODFREY ANDERSON LONDON (AP) — By the standards of Charles Dickens' day, Britain today is an affluent society where the combination of private enterprise and the welfare state provide for most needs. Yet three million families live in slums, near-slums or grossly overcrowded conditions.

Social workers call them the hidden homeless — families crowded into single rooms, in damp basements, often sharing a toilet and cold water faucet with up to 20 other people, threatened by imminent family breakup because of the tensions under which they live — but still paying high rents.

These families have a roof, however leaky. Their children are not barefoot or in rags as the poor were a few decades ago. They are not underfed, though dieticians say they are often undernourished.

A dedicated group, headed by a Scottish Presbyterian minister and his Boston-born wife, has decided the plight of the hidden homeless adds up to a national emergency. Three million families, they point out, mean at least 10 million people. All political parties agree it will take at least 10 years to meet their needs if existing slum clearance programs are fulfilled. By that time, with normal population increase, there will be more seeking aid.

The Rev. Bruce Kenrick, 46, knows what living in slum conditions is like. A wartime paratrooper officer, he is a graduate of Edinburgh University and Princeton Theological Seminary. While in America he married Isabel Howland Witty of Cambridge, Mass., and together they worked weekends in an East Harlem, N.Y., Protestant parish in what he calls "the nuck and dirt of God's world." The result was a book, "Come Out of the Wilderness."

After returning to be ordained in the Church of Scotland, he went to work in India but was brought home with typhoid.

When he recovered, the Kenricks cast around for a place where they could be useful. They picked the drab West London section of Notting Hill, then notorious for race riots. There the Kenricks made a home.

He started his Notting Hill housing trust on a shoestring but within a year it had $140,000 gifts and raised five times that in loans and grants from authorities. Today it owns 54 houses and has rehoused 800 people.

This month he announced a national campaign for the homeless to be called Shelter.

"We have to publicize the human need behind the statistics. By pouring large sums of money into a few carefully chosen black spots, we intend to show that dramatic results in terms of relieving human need can be achieved."

First Two Years Were Real Hectic

DETROIT (AP) — If the next 20 years of the George Connelly's marriage are as hectic as the first two days, husband George may be in the hospital instead of his wife.

The former Carolyn Nadrowsky married George Tuesday, had an appendectomy Wednesday and celebrated her honeymoon in the hospital Thursday.

The newlyweds, both 27 and teachers, long had planned for a holiday wedding, followed by a reception for 150 guests and a honeymoon trip to the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania.

Last Monday, Carolyn awoke with an upset stomach.

"It was the day of the wedding rehearsal, so I thought it was just a case of nerves," she said.

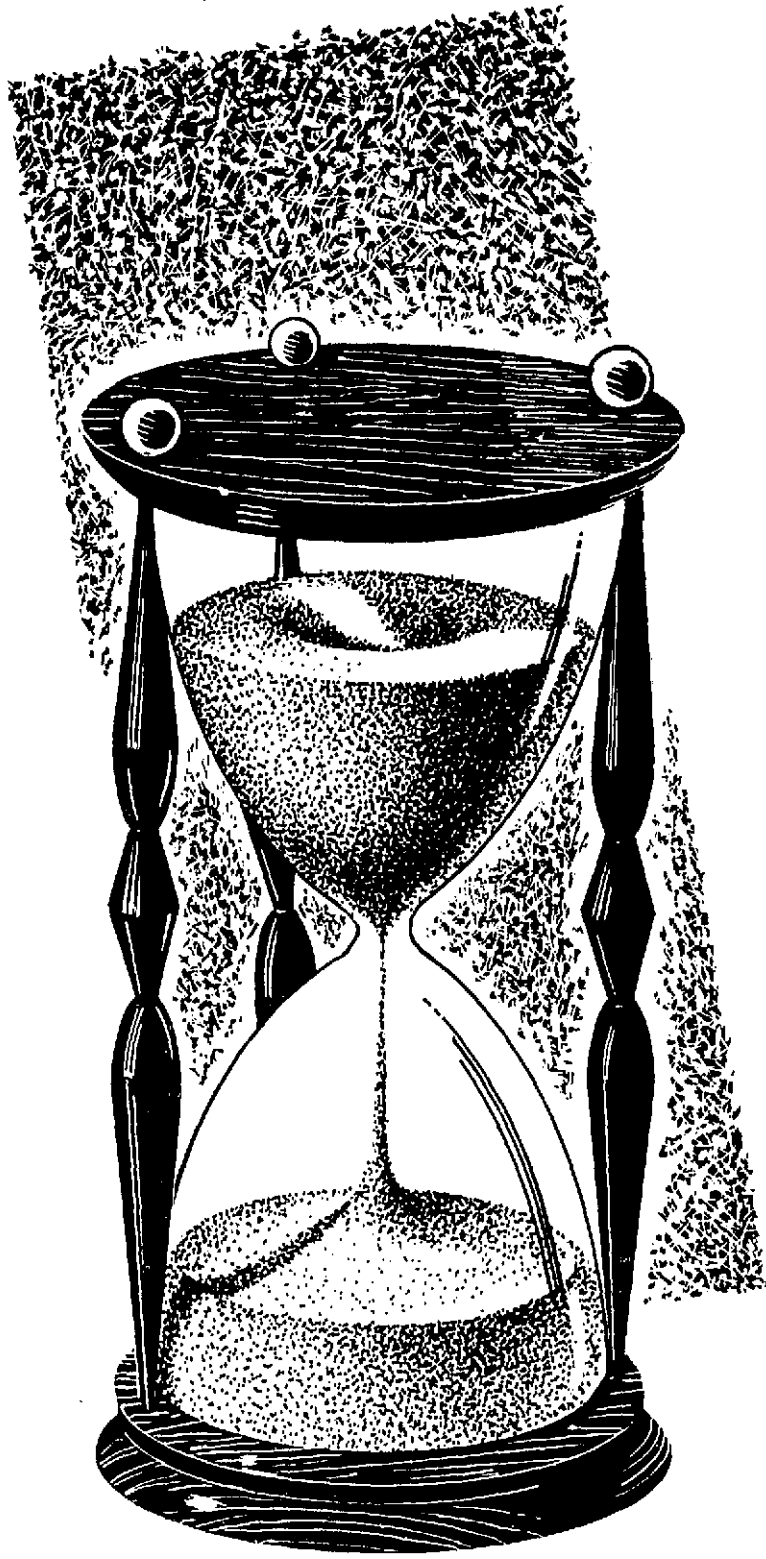

The pain got worse. Carolyn managed to make it through the wedding rehearsal and a family dinner.

Tuesday morning, Connelly drove his fiancée to a hospital for a checkup. Doctors wanted Carolyn to stay on for observation. She refused. "I was scared that the wedding would have to be called off," she said. "I wouldn't stay."

Carolyn took aspirin and was married by candlelight at St. Veronica's Roman Catholic Church in East Detroit.

The couple stayed at the reception for a while to greet guests and then went to see a specialist. He ordered Carolyn to bed and gave her some pills for her nerves.

By Wednesday morning, the couple decided to go back to the hospital. By nightfall doctors had removed a badly inflamed appendix.

Snow Moves on But the Cold Stays

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The late December major snow storm has moved into eastern Canada but cold air today covered wide areas in most of the storm-stricken sections from the Midwest into New England.

Snow squalls, with high winds, continued during the early morning along the eastern Great Lakes to New England. Snow flurries flecked areas in other sections of the snow belt, mainly in the Dakotas and Minnesota and northern parts of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont.

The mercury dropped below zero across areas in the Midwest, including cities in the Dakotas, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Nebraska. Near zero marks were reported in parts of Iowa and Illinois. Readings were in the teens in Kansas and Missouri.

It also was chilly in parts of the Southland, with freezing temperatures in the Carolinas, Virginia, Georgia and Alabama. Near freezing was reported in Louisiana and in Phoenix, Ariz.

The big storm dumped more than a foot of snow in some Midwest cities. The snow cover in mountain areas in New England measured nearly two feet.

But rain washed away much of the snow which belted areas in the East Thursday, including southern and coastal sections of New England. Rain splashed the Boston area, diminishing the snow accumulation.

Gale winds were clocked at 95 miles an hour at Blue Hill Observatory south of Boston Thursday.

Outside the snow belt, more rain fell in the Far Northwest, changing to snow in the northern Rockies. Amounts of 1 to 3 inches were reported in parts of Idaho, Utah and western Montana in six hours. Showers sprinkled areas along the Texas Gulf Coast but clear skies prevailed across most of the southern half of the nation.

Magician to Make Elephant Disappear

By HENRIETTA LEITH

NEW YORK (AP) — A seven-foot-high elephant is going to vanish in a puff of smoke before the eyes of television viewers Sunday night.

This may sound impossible, but Milbourne Christopher, master magician, is not at all worried about whether he can pull off this unprecedented illusion.

He's only worried about whether he can get the elephant on the stage before he makes it vanish.

Christopher, who has mystified audiences around the world with somewhat less formidable feats of legerdemain, is co-producer as well as performer in an hour-long show of magic on a Carry Moore special on CBS.

If he can get the elephant on the stage — it took hours to figure out a way during rehearsals — he swears he will stand 14 feet away, fire a pistol and make the elephant — plainly seen behind slatted gates — vanish in a puff of smoke.

If he does, it will be the first time anyone ever did it on a brightly lit stage, and with a full-grown elephant in view.

Houdini did it in 1918 on the stage of the old Hippodrome Theater, but there were important differences.

"He did it on a dimly lit stage, with a small elephant," explains Christopher, "and he put the elephant into a big box before he made it disappear."

Students Threaten to Go to Jail Rather Than Go to Vietnam

NEW YORK (AP) — One-hundred student leaders from across the country have sent an open letter to President Johnson questioning U.S. goals in Vietnam.

"Unless this conflict can be eased, the United States will find some of her most loyal and courageous young people choosing to go to jail rather than to bear the country's arms, while countless others condone or even utilize techniques for evading their legal obligations," the letter said.

The letter, which the student leaders signed as individuals, was mailed to the White House Thursday. The signers are from both church and nonsectarian schools in every region of the country.

There was no immediate comment from the White House. "We write," the students said, "in hope that this letter will encourage a frank discussion of these problems. If such a discussion clarified American objectives in Vietnam, it might help reverse the drift, which is now from confusion toward disaffection. To this end, we submit for your consideration some of the questions now agitating the academic community:

"— There is doubt that America's vital interests are sufficiently threatened in Vietnam to necessitate the growing commitment there.

"— There is doubt that such vital interests as may be threatened are best protected by this growing commitment.

"— There is doubt that a war which may devastate much of the countryside can lead to the stable and prosperous Vietnam we once hoped our presence would help create.

"— There is considerable concern about apparent contradictions in the American position on certain points basic to any efforts to negotiate a settlement. High government officials reiterate our eagerness to negotiate 'unconditionally,' but we remain unclear about our willingness to accept full participation by the Viet Cong as an independent party to negotiations."

The letter urged Johnson to extend the New Year's truce even without a formal agreement with the Communists. It said this could be done by "de facto restraint on both sides."

The students' idea to write the letter to Johnson grew out of a debate at the annual congress of the National Student Association last summer on the campus of the University of Illinois.

The suggestion was put forward during the debate by Alard K. Lowenstein, a former president of the association who is now a lawyer and active reform Democrat in New York.

After the debate concluded, a group of 200 students held a rump meeting on the campus and agreed to draft such a letter.

They passed a hat and raised $83 to cover the expense of mailing the letter to student leaders around the country.

The letter was drafted and redrafted during September at meetings in the Manhattan home of Abby Erdmann, a sophomore at Smith College.

The students, however, postponed mailing it, first because of Johnson's trip to Asia, and then because of the elections.

"We didn't want it to look like an election gimmick," Miss Erdmann said Thursday.

River Bridge Dedicated

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Orval Faubus took the first ride across the New C. F. Byrns Memorial Bridge over the Arkansas River Thursday.

Faubus hopped into a red, stored 1934 Auburn automobile to make the trip after dedicating the $4,365,652 bridge on Interstate 540. The bridge is named for the late C. F. Byrns, who was editor of the Fort Smith Southwest American and Times Record many years and an advocate of Arkansas River development.

LBJ Would Extend Head Start Program

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson is seeking ways to extend the Head Start program beyond preschool days.

This was disclosed Thursday night by the Texas White House in reporting that Sargent Shriver, director of the antipoverty program, had met with the President at the LBJ Ranch.

The Head Start program provides summer training for children. One of the criticisms of the program has been that it drops the educationally disadvantaged too soon.

Johnson and Shriver, the announcement said, reviewed the antipoverty program in general, with particular stress on the Head Start program.

Johnson and Llewellyn E. Thompson, another ranch visitor Thursday, reviewed U.S.-Soviet relations. Thompson is due to reach Moscow Jan. 11 for his second tour as U.S. ambassador. He is replacing Foy D. Kohler, now deputy undersecretary of state for political affairs.

Questions Death Penalty Data

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A Little Rock lawyer said Thursday he could not substantiate statistics Prosecutor Lloyd Henry of Searey used in a talk defending capital punishment.

Henry had said statistics showed that 36 per cent of convicted murderers whose sentences are commuted and who are freed kill again.

Ted Boswell said he talked with the office of the director of the Bureau of Prisons by telephone and said the office knew nothing of such statistics. He said, however, the bureau said the tendency of convicted murderers to commit another crime once they are freed was less than that of most any other felony offender who is paroled.

"I can only assume that Mr. Henry has misread or misunderstood whatever statistics he has or he has been misquoted," Boswell said.

Faubus Aide Joins Arkla

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Clarence R. Thornbrough, Gov. Orval Faubus' executive secretary, will join the Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. Jan. 15 after the governor's sixth term expires.

W. R. Stephens, Arkla president and board chairman, said Thursday that Thornbrough would be director of labor relations and employment for the company's industrial plants in Arkansas.

Thornbrough has been executive secretary to Faubus the last five years. He originally joined the Faubus administration in 1955 as state labor commissioner and succeeded Arnold Sikes as executive secretary to the governor.

AEC Plants to Private Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission is interested in transferring some of its uranium producing plants to private control.

The AEC announced Thursday it is discussing the possibility of selling or leasing its uranium 235-producing plants at Oak Ridge, Tenn., Portsmouth, Ohio, and Paducah, Ky.

The gaseous diffusion plants, built for use in the production of nuclear weapons, also provide enriched uranium for fuel in civilian reactors. They cost a total of $2.3 billion.

"With the reductions in defense requirements, civilian reactors are expected to become the primary market for enriched uranium in the future," the AEC announcement said.

No Objection to Pollution Plan

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — No objections were raised Thursday to the Arkansas Pollution Control Commission's proposed criteria regulating the quality of water of interstate streams in Arkansas.

More than 100 persons attended the public hearing at which M. L. Wood, commission director, said that once adopted the criteria would "be quite inflexible."

The general criteria proposed by the commission included that the method of sampling, collecting, preserving, measuring and analyzing be in accordance with "Standard Methods of Examination of Water and Wastewater" and that the effects of wastes on receiving streams should be sampled after the wastes have mixed with the water.

Fight Flares on Even of 2-Day Truce

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) —

Small-scale fighting flared in South Vietnam's Mekong Delta and the central lowlands today on the eve of the two-day New Year's truce.

In the air war, bad weather again curtailed raids on North Vietnam, but U.S. B52 bombers made three attacks on Communist positions in South Vietnam.

With the New Year's ceasefire scheduled to start at 6 p.m. EST Friday, Premier Nguyen Cao Ky threatened to cancel the four-day truce promised for the Vietnamese New Year in February unless the Viet Cong observe the truce this weekend better than they did the Christmas ceasefire.

In Saigon, American sources reported that a five-day port strike protesting the replacement of Vietnamese dockworkers by American servicemen had been settled. The settlement came near the end of an ineffective 12-hour general strike called in Saigon by the Vietnamese Confederation of Labor.

South Vietnamese troops clashed in three brisk firefights with Viet Cong guerrillas in the Mekong Delta and reported killing 45 of the enemy. Government casualties were reported moderate in one clash 65 miles southwest of Saigon and light in two actions 54 miles southwest of the capital.

U.S. headquarters reported the loss of an Air Force propeller-driven Skyraider 22 miles northeast of Phan Thiet on the South China Sea Coast. A spokesman said the plane was not shot down and the pilot was rescued.

In two of the day's three B52 raids, the bombers struck before dawn at North Vietnamese supply areas in Kontum Province in the central highlands.

The double raid was followed at midday by a B52 strike eight miles west of Bong Son, on the central coast about 280 miles northeast of Saigon. A spokesman said the target of this raid was a battalion-size force of North Vietnamese troops, or about 500 men.

This is the area where the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile Division have clashed throughout the week with North Vietnamese regulars. U.S. headquarters said the cavalrymen killed 74 North Vietnamese in scattered light contacts through Thursday.

In the air over North Vietnam Thursday, U.S. bomber pilots flew 73 missions against lines of communication and storage areas, most of them along the North Vietnamese coastline and in the southern panhandle. Pilots reported 13 barges, six trucks, two bridges and five storage or staging areas damaged or destroyed.

U.S. officials said the 5,000 striking dockworkers in Saigon would return to work tonight and an agreement would be signed Saturday.

The stevedores walked out Monday in protest against the replacement of Vietnamese by American servicemen at the Newport dock, a new U.S. military port facility. The sources said the U.S. military port command had agreed to hire 288 replaced dockworkers to work on Saigon's commercial docks.
